M&R RANCH – PERFORMANCE HORSES OF GEORGIA DAY CAMP INFORMATION

Our horse camps are designed for young riders who are interested in learning about horses including grooming, saddling your horse, horse/rider communication and riding techniques as well as crafts and games designed to enhance and educate young riders about the horse. To participate in our day camps children are to be between the ages of 7 - 15 yrs. old.

The days consist of a variety of activities developed to teach young riders the basics of horsemanship. The day camp begins at 8:30 am and finishes at 4:30 pm. No previous horse experience is necessary.

- Daily horseback riding – We ride in the arenas and in the corrals. Length of riding time depends on the camp program you choose.
- Ground School – Learn to groom and saddle and how to handle a horse on the ground, including cleaning the hooves.
- Horse Care – Learn to feed, how to clean tack, clean stalls, and take horses to their paddocks or pastures.
- Games and Horse Activities – on the ground and in the saddle.
- Horse Shoe Demonstration - our farrier welcomes questions.
- Safe and positive environment.
- Friendship circles, team-building activities and barn buddies.
- Small classes - limited enrollment.
